AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

(Original first verse by Katharine Lee Bates* followed by three additional verses
by Chris Van Cleave)

*O beautiful for spacious skies,
for amber waves of grain;
for purple mountains majesties
above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful when we awake
to live the dream of love;
where all of life's in harmony,
at one with heaven above!
America! America! May history serve us well through those who gave their lives to save and ring our Freedom Bell.

O beautiful when we can see the treasure of your soul;
where every human race and creed
achieves God's loving goal!
America! America! Let shine your glorious heart from every woman, man, and child who see how great thou art!

O beautiful to know the truth
of those born here before;
who knew this country's gracious gift was valued even more!
America! America! Let all who walk thee know the blessedness, the preciousness of life born here to show!

America! America! God shed pure grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea.
